

The National Arboretum
Alrewas , Staffordshire

Where has the last twelve months gone since we were caught up in the terrorist attack in Tunisia ?

We belong to a survivors group and what an amazing group of people. We have got to speak to people who were with us In the cellar, We have also spoken to a Salvationist, We have got to speak to people who we hadn't spoken to before.

On Sunday 26th June 2016 one year on a group of 60 survivors met at the Arboretum to spend time in remembering those caught up in the Attack

I was privileged to help plan the event and was delighted that our own Major's Stuart & Anne Crane kindly led a short service of remembrance for us.

As Part of the service 38 candles remembering all that lost their lives, A heart wreath was laid to symbolize the memories of the unexpected help and support that many experienced, the friendship that have developed and the hope we have for the future

We then shared in a meal to conclude this day.

What you missed in JUNE at our First Sunday Event

Our First Sunday Event we had the privilege of having Lieut – Colonels Peter and Sylvia Dalziel. We were blessed and encouraged by their ministry.

Through their songs , stories and God inspired words they spoke God's message of hope into the hearts of those present.

'In the pain, in the doubt , in the loneliness , In the struggle of the rights against wrongs somewhere amid confusion,
There will be hope, there will be love, there will be God '(Joy Webb)

A FRIDAY NIGHT in June AT THE ARMY
